

Citation Abbreviations

People or Organizations:
Compiler or compilers	comp. or comps.
Corporate authors	Sigmund Freud states that a "dream is a fulfillment of a wish" (154). Smith developed the argument in his 1997 book (185-91).
Edited by; translated by, etc.	Abbreviate in parenthetical in-text citations only. Use full names in "Works Cited" list. Example: In 1988 a federal report observed that "current high level of attention to child care is directly attributable to the new workforce trends" (United States, Dept. of Labor 147). Works Cited United States, Department of Labor. Child Care: A Workforce Issue . Government Printing Office, 1988.
Editor or Editors	ed. or eds.
Publishers' names	Do not abbreviate. Exceptions: UP for "University Press"; P for "Press" in name of an academic publisher Examples: Cambridge UP; U of Chicago P; MIT P
Parts of works:
Chapter or chapters	chap. or chaps (in in-text citation)
Issue number or numbers	no. or nos. (in in-text citation)
Page or pages	p. or pp. (in "Works Cited" list only)

DARE TO DO MORE

Paragraph or paragraphs	par. or pars. (in in-text citation)
Section or sections	sec. or secs. (in in-text citation)
Volume or volumes	vol. or vols. (in "Works Cited" list only)
Time:
Anno Domini	AD
Before Christ	BC
Afternoon	p.m.
Morning	a.m.
Months	Jan., Feb., Mar., Apr., Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov., Dec. (in "Works Cited" list only)
Miscellaneous:
Edition	ed.
Quoted in (indirect source)	qtd. in
Revised	rev.
United States	US