

The Best of the Best: Library Awards for 2004

By Clementine Lewis, Associate Professor, Library

Research Review Competition

For the past 25 years, the Library Media Resources Center has sponsored a Research Review Competition to encourage and support research efforts at the college. Students who receive a grade of A on a research paper written for a course at LaGuardia during the current academic year may submit it into the competition. Faculty Council co-sponsors this event and provides U.S. Savings Bonds for all the winners.

Students and faculty who want to learn more about this competition should contact members of the Research Review Panel: Fredesvinda Dura, Terence Julien, Clementine Lewis, Sally Mettler, Marie Spina, and Zhang Yu.

Thanks to all the instructors who encouraged their students to submit research papers.

LRC Incentive Award

The library offers a three-credit course, LRC 102: Information Strategies, during Fall I and Spring I. Students who excel in this course and serve as role models for their classmates receive the LRC Incentive Award. At Honors Night, the following five students received the LRC Incentive Award:

Ataoulaye F. Bah – Business Administration
Ayesha Blackman – Accounting
Doreen A. Corbett – Business Administration
Sandra L. Rios – New Media Technology
Chi Chung Yeung – Liberal Arts: Social Science and Humanities
