

Professional Accomplishments and Activities

Prof. N. Agbim, Prof. J. Devine, Prof. F. Egger-Sider, Prof. L. Fluk, Prof. C. Lewis, Mr. T. Parker, Prof. L. Ramos, Prof. K. Riccardi, Prof. L. Spain, and Prof. C. Stenstrom attended the 1999 LACUNY Conference on Digital Libraries held in New York City in May 1999.

Prof. F. Egger-Sider attended "Immersion '99" sponsored by the Association of College and Research Libraries' Institute for Information Literacy at SUNY Plattsburgh, July 23rd - 28th. This Institute for Information Literacy was designed to improve librarians teaching methodology and help in the implementation of an information literacy program on their respective campuses. The two most meaningful components for the LaGuardia Library Media Resources Center are the need to make information literacy part of the College curriculum as a whole, and the need to develop appropriate assessment tools at every level of the instruction program.

Prof. L. Ramos published "Murder in the library... or stories that actually happen in libraries day after day and that people seldom find out!" in The Unabashed Librarian, Number 111, 1999.

Prof. K. Riccardi received a Certificate in Computer

Repair from the Division of Adult and Continuing Education LaGuardia Community College on May 27, 1999.

Prof. Riccardi also published "Information Literacy and the Archival Exhibit." Archivist Roundtable Newsletter. June 1999.

LIBRARY RESEARCH REVIEW COMPETITION

Prof. Clementine Lewis

For the past 19 years, the Library has sponsored the Library Research Review Competition to promote and support research efforts at the College. The competition rewards students for writing papers that reflect their mastery of library research skills and classroom writing techniques.

The competition has also provided opportunities for faculty and students to support the College's efforts in promoting writing across the curriculum. Research papers entered into the competition come from all academic disciplines at the College, including English, Humanities, Mathematics, Natural and Applied Science, Social Science and Accounting & Managerial Studies.
