

FINDING A BOOK ON THE SHELF USING THE CALL NUMBER

Books are shelved left to right on any of the Library's bookshelves, following the alphabet and numbers. To get the book The Short Stories by Ernest Hemingway:

1. Search for it in OneSearch and select the book:
 - Find the call number next to where it reads "Available at," which means that the book is available for loan. "Stacks" are where you find books that may be borrowed.
 - Call numbers begin with letters and are followed by a series of letters and numbers, in the case here PS 3515 .E37 A6 1997, and are located on the book's spine. The first line represents the subject area. The P's are Language and Literature. Most books have one or two letters. The order of the P's will be P, followed by PA, PB, PC, etc., up to PZ.
